GROWTH ENGINE
FOR MEMPHIS & SHELBY COUNTY

EDGE Neighborhood Emergency Economic Development (NEED) Grant Policy & Application

Summary/Purpose/Objectives:

The Board of Directors of The Economic Development Growth Engine Industrial Development Board of the City of Memphis and County of Shelby, Tennessee (EDGE) has created an EDGE Neighborhood Emergency Economic Development (NEED) Grant to secure neighborhood-serving businesses and prevent the loss of job generating activities in distressed and vulnerable areas. Grants of up to $10,000 will be made to businesses located in, or adjacent or contiguous to New Markets Tax Credit Eligible Census Tracts throughout the City of Memphis that have experienced at least a 25% loss in revenue as a result of COVID-19. Funds may be used for essential working capital costs such as rent or mortgage payments, payroll, supplier and vendor payments, insurance and utilities.

Program Provisions

Eligible Applicants:

- Businesses must be locally owned and have been in operation with proper licenses and permits prior to March 1, 2019 and in continuous operation through March 1, 2020.
- Business must demonstrate a 25% or greater loss of revenue due to COVID-19 by comparing the month of February 2020 revenue to the revenue in the last full month of operation prior to application as attested to by the Applicant.
- Business must be located in, or adjacent or contiguous to a New Markets Tax Credit Qualified Census Tract within the City of Memphis based on www.cohnreznick.com/NMTC-Mapping-Tool.
- Annual revenue of Business must be more than $25,000 and less than $1,000,000.
- Business must be current on all City of Memphis and Shelby County Property Taxes or have an approved payment plan in place, for which it is current.
- All retail and commercial uses are eligible except:
 - Liquor and tobacco stores
 - Adult entertainment and product stores
 - Pawnshop, Payday loans, Title loan establishments
 - Car dealerships
 - Ministorage
 - Gas Stations
 - Financial businesses primarily engaged in lending
 - Real estate development or rental businesses
 - Insurance companies
 - Private clubs
 - Non-profit agencies

- Home-based businesses
- Others at the discretion of the Economic Development Finance Committee
- In addition, churches and religious institutions, and government entities, are ineligible.
- Businesses that receive other forms of emergency local, state or federal financial assistance may still apply.
- Past participants in EDGE Inner City Economic Development (ICED) Loan program are eligible and EDGE will waive the requirement that businesses be operational for at least one year for ICED Loan recipients.

Eligible Uses:

Grant funds may be used for essential working capital such as rent or mortgage payments, payroll, supplier and vendor payments, insurance and utilities based on the budget presented with application based on the following provisions.

Amount Available:

Grants will be awarded on a first-come first-served basis as follows:

- Businesses that remain open with a 25% or more reduction in revenue and have a plan for 90 days of continuous future operation may qualify for between $5,000 and $10,000.
- Businesses that are temporarily closed due to COVID-19 but have a plan for reopening within 90 days and staying open for at least 90 days thereafter may qualify for up to $5,000.

Evaluation:

EDGE staff will evaluate applications from operating businesses and make recommendations to the Economic Development Finance Committee based the business’s stabilization and recovery plan, the probability of business survival and the estimated impact to the business’s neighborhood.

Application & Approval Process:

Eligible businesses can initiate the process by emailing an application to NEED@Growth-Engine.org. Those wishing to discuss the program and review requirements prior to submitting an application should email a request to NEED@Growth-Engine.org or call 901-341-2100 and EDGE staff will follow-up to arrange a phone call.

To provide more comprehensive assistance to eligible businesses, EDGE is partnering with the Tennessee Small Business Development Center at Southwest Tennessee Community College (TSBDC) which will provide assistance in completing the NEED Grant application and work with the business to identify resources and business survival and recovery strategies. As part of the NEED Grant application, businesses must: (1) have registered for advising at www.tsbdc.org/advising/; (2) received an initial assessment from the TSBDC; and (3) scheduled a follow-up counselling session for no more than 45 days after initial assessment. EDGE may accept verification of comparable business assessment and counseling from The City of Memphis Office of Diversity & Compliance, Communities Unlimited, Epicenter or another recognized small business assistance agency.

Completed applications will be evaluated by the EDGE Economic Development Finance Committee, which will meet electronically on a weekly basis. The Committee will evaluate all applicants based on their stabilization and recovery plan and the probability that they can survive COVID-19 and continue serving their community, estimated community impact, and compliance with program policies. Preference will be given to past EDGE ICED loan recipients, and to businesses that have not received emergency financial support from other local entities. The Committee will determine which applications are approved or denied.

Once approved, Grant Agreements will be scanned and emailed to the applicant immediately following the meeting. Grant Agreements will also be sent USPS. Applicants will have 21 days from approval to return a fully executed Grant Agreement to EDGE Grant Manager or the approval becomes null and void.

Fees:

There are no fees associated with the NEED Grant program.

Application:

The application is attached.

Reporting and Default Recourse:

All NEED Grant recipients shall be required to report semi-annually to EDGE with reports due on June 30th and December 31st for a period of three (3) years on their business status, sales, employment, and other data as identified by EDGE. See attached report form.

Should EDGE discover that the Applicant has misrepresented any statements in or associated with the Application process or has intentionally disregarded the Stabilization and Recovery Plan presented, EDGE reserves the right to declare the Applicant in default and collect grant funds disbursed plus attorney's fees and costs of collection.
